Program Description

The Graduate Certificate in Faith Formation for Christian Educators is designed specifically for K-12 educators working in faith-based school contexts. Students will take courses related to the core theological disciplines such as Scripture, Doctrine, Church History, or Ethics and conclude the certificate with a course on theological integration for their particular discipline. This certificate offers a graduate-level introduction to the theological, scriptural, and historical foundations of the Christian Faith and empowers educators to more deeply integrate these learnings into their classrooms and academic settings.
