

THEOLOGY: CHRISTIAN SCRIPTURE (MA)

Program Description

The Master of Theology degree with the Christian Scripture concentration is designed to deepen your understanding and appropriation of the Bible as the church's Scripture – originating with God's people living in particular times and places, but authoritative for us as God's people in all times and places.

Consequently, in addition to encountering the biblical texts as texts, you will study them within the context of the church's larger canonical context: its foundational theology, ethics, and history of interpretation.

If your professional objectives change during your course of study, you may transfer easily from any one concentration in this degree program to any of the others, or to the MDiv program (<https://catalog.spu.edu/graduate/college-schools/seattle-pacific-seminary/divinity-mdiv/>).

The Seattle Pacific Seminary Faculty (<http://spu.edu/academics/seattle-pacific-seminary/about/seminary-faculty/>) are a collegium of scholars and pastors who are committed to growing together in wonder, love, and praise.

Admission Requirements

To enroll in Seattle Pacific University's Master of Arts in Theology (MA) program, you must submit:

1. A graduate online application (<http://admissions.spu.edu/apply/>) for admission.
2. A $50 processing fee.
3. Official transcripts from all undergraduate institutions.
4. Two letters of recommendation:
 - a. one from a clergy person, church staff person, or parachurch professional who will attest to your emotional, spiritual, and academic readiness for graduate theological study; and
 - b. one academic reference from a former professor who knows your academic work well.
5. A typed personal statement. Statements should be three to four pages in length (double spaced). The statement should address your career objectives, a narrative of your personal Christian experience, rationale for seeking the degree and choosing to attend SPU, and other insights you deem appropriate.

Transfer Credits

If you wish to apply graduate-level coursework completed at a regionally accredited university or an ATS-accredited divinity school or seminary toward your MA, you must provide official transcripts and, in some cases, course syllabi. You may transfer up to 20 quarter credits from other graduate programs.

- To receive transfer credit, each course must be at least 3 graduate-quarter credits and be equivalent to courses taught in the School of Theology at SPU.

- Each course will be considered on a case-by-case basis as to the fulfillment of specific curricular requirements.
- A minimum grade of B will be needed for transferred work.
- All courses applied toward the graduate degree must be taken within seven years of admission.
- In all cases, the final 20 MA credits must be taken at SPU.

Credit for Prior Coursework

You will have your transcripts evaluated during the admissions process for the following:

- If you have been granted a master's degree from another regionally accredited university.
- If you have taken graduate-level coursework in theology.
