

THEOLOGY: THEOLOGICAL INTEGRATION (MA)

Program Description

Combine rigorous study in the classical theological disciplines with an interdisciplinary focus. The Master of Arts in Theology with a concentration in Theological Integration prepares you to serve in diverse settings and equips you to live a more integrated life of faith and mission as an administrator, manager, or marketplace or Christian organization professional.

This degree concentration is specific to those who are looking to integrate theology into other professional work. The Theological Integration concentration requires students to be pursuing a dual-degree in one of our partnership graduate programs (<https://spu.edu/academics/seattle-pacific-seminary/programs/dual-degrees/>).

The Seattle Pacific Seminary Faculty (<http://spu.edu/academics/seattle-pacific-seminary/about/seminary-faculty/>) are a collegium of scholars and pastors who are committed to growing together in wonder, love, and praise.

Admission Requirements

To enroll in Seattle Pacific University's Master of Arts in Theology (MA) program, you must submit:

1. A graduate online application (<http://admissions.spu.edu/apply/>) for admission.
2. A $50 processing fee.
3. Official transcripts from all undergraduate institutions.
4. Two letters of recommendation:
 - a. one from a clergy person, church staff person, or parachurch professional who will attest to the your emotional, spiritual, and academic readiness for graduate theological study; and
 - b. one academic reference from a former professor who knows your academic work well.
5. A typed personal statement. Statements should be three to four pages in length (double spaced). The statement should address your career objectives, a narrative of your personal Christian experience, rationale for seeking the degree and choosing to attend SPU, and other insights you deem appropriate.

Transfer Credits

If you wish to apply graduate-level coursework completed at a regionally accredited university or an ATS-accredited divinity school or seminary toward your MA, you must provide official transcripts and, in some cases, course syllabi. You may transfer up to 20 quarter credits from other graduate programs.

- To receive transfer credit, each course must be at least 3 graduate-quarter credits and be equivalent to courses taught in the School of Theology at SPU.
- Each course will be considered on a case-by-case basis as to the fulfillment of specific curricular requirements.

- A minimum grade of B will be needed for transferred work.
- All courses applied toward the graduate degree must be taken within seven years of admission.
- In all cases, the final 20 MA credits must be taken at SPU.

Credit for Prior Coursework

You will have your transcripts evaluated during the admissions process for the following:

- If you have been granted a master's degree from another regionally accredited university.
- If you have taken graduate-level coursework in theology.
