

COMMUNICATION (COM)

COM 6180 Cultural Communication (3 Credits)

This course explores how to productively and sensitively interact with people from cultures that differ from our own. We explore the dimensions across which cultures vary through a variety of in-class activities, lectures, films, and stories. Students will gain an understanding of cultural differences around the world and will gain some skills to communicate competently in a variety of cultural settings.

Course Schedule (<https://catalog.spu.edu/course-search/?details&code=COM%206180>)

COM 6900 Independent Study (1-5 Credit)

Student works independently with a faculty member on a mutually agreed upon topic.

Course Schedule (<https://catalog.spu.edu/course-search/?details&code=COM%206900>)