

STUDENT LIFE

The Office of Student Life (<http://spu.edu/administration/office-of-student-life/>), recognizing that learning occurs both in and out of the classroom, is committed to providing educational opportunities and support services in accordance with the University's mission. While the Office of Student Life primarily focuses on undergraduate students, it also offers resources to graduate students.

Graduate Handbook

For additional information about the Office of Student Life, including behavioral expectations for graduate students, please consult the 2024–25 Graduate Student Handbook (https://catalog.spu.edu/pdf/Graduate Student Handbook - final 5-23-24.pdf) (PDF). By enrolling in graduate courses at Seattle Pacific University, you agree to comply with the expectations, policies, and procedures in the Graduate Student Handbook, as amended from time to time.

Disability Support Services

SPU's Disability Support Services (<http://spu.edu/depts/cfl/dss/>) works with undergraduate and graduate students to ensure equal access and to provide reasonable accommodations for those with documented disabilities.
